The ranch is run by a team of dedicated volunteers, who work tirelessly to care for the horses and help them heal. The volunteers come from all walks of life, but they all share a common love of horses and a desire to make a difference in their lives.

The horses at Creedence Horse Rescue come from a variety of backgrounds. Some have been rescued from abusive owners, while others have been found abandoned or neglected. The horses are all different ages, breeds, and sizes, but they all have one thing in common: they have all been given a second chance at life.

The volunteers at Creedence Horse Rescue work hard to provide the horses with the best possible care. The horses are given regular medical checkups, vaccinations, and farrier care. They are also given a nutritious diet and plenty of exercise. The volunteers also spend a lot of time socializing the horses and helping them to build trust with humans again.

The horses at Creedence Horse Rescue have made remarkable progress since they arrived at the ranch. They are now healthy, happy, and well-adjusted horses. Many of the horses have even been adopted into loving homes.

Creedence Horse Rescue is a truly special place. It is a place where horses that have been through unimaginable trauma can find healing and hope. The volunteers at the ranch are dedicated to giving the horses a second chance at life, and they are making a real difference in the lives of these amazing animals.
