In the heart of Chiang Mai, Thailand, a vibrant city known for its ancient temples and bustling markets, a shocking murder has occurred at the House of Rooster Happiness, a renowned massage parlor. The victim, a beautiful young masseuse named Dao, was found brutally killed in one of the massage rooms, her body bearing the marks of a violent struggle.

As the news of the murder spreads through the city, fear and suspicion grip the community. The House of Rooster Happiness, once a sanctuary of relaxation and pleasure, has become a scene of unspeakable horror. The local police are baffled by the crime, and the case quickly becomes a cold one.

Enter the Ethical Chiang Mai Detective Agency, a small but highly skilled team of private investigators known for their integrity and unwavering determination. Led by the brilliant and compassionate Detective Somchai, the agency is determined to uncover the truth behind Dao's murder and bring the killer to justice.

As Detective Somchai and his team begin their investigation, they delve into the hidden world of Chiang Mai's massage parlors, where secrets and illicit activities lurk in the shadows. They interview the staff and patrons of the House of Rooster Happiness, searching for clues and motives.

One of the first suspects is the parlor's owner, a wealthy and influential businessman named Khun Boonmee. Known for his ruthless business practices and rumored connections to the city's underworld, Khun Boonmee becomes the prime suspect in the eyes of the detectives.

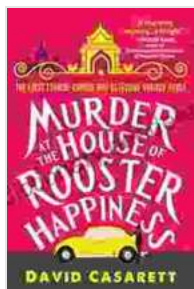

However, as the investigation deepens, Detective Somchai and his team uncover a web of relationships and hidden agendas that extends far beyond Khun Boonmee. They discover that Dao was involved in a secret affair with a powerful politician, and that her murder may have been a political assassination.

With each new revelation, the case becomes more complex and dangerous. The detectives face threats and intimidation from those who wish to keep the truth hidden. But Detective Somchai and his team refuse to be deterred. They follow the evidence wherever it leads, determined to expose the killer and bring justice to Dao's family.

As the investigation reaches its climax, Detective Somchai and his team uncover a shocking conspiracy involving corrupt politicians, ruthless businessmen, and a network of human traffickers. They realize that Dao's murder was just one piece of a much larger and sinister plot.

In a thrilling and action-packed finale, the detectives confront the killer, a cold-blooded sociopath with a twisted motive. A deadly confrontation ensues, where the detectives' skills and determination are put to the test. In the end, justice prevails, but at a great cost.
