The Official DSA Guide for Professional Bus and Coach Drivers is an essential resource for all professional drivers of buses and coaches. It provides clear and concise information on all aspects of the Driver CPC, ensuring that drivers can comply with the regulations and continue to operate their vehicles safely and efficiently.

The Driver CPC Requirements

The Driver CPC is a mandatory qualification for all professional drivers of buses and coaches. This includes drivers of:

- Buses with more than 8 passenger seats
- Coaches
- Minibuses with more than 9 passenger seats

Drivers must obtain a Driver CPC before they can drive a bus or coach for hire or reward.

How to Obtain a Driver CPC

To obtain a Driver CPC, drivers must:

- Be at least 18 years old
- Hold a valid UK driving licence
- Pass a Driver CPC theory test
- Complete 35 hours of Driver CPC periodic training

Drivers can complete the Driver CPC theory test and periodic training at an approved training centre.

The Driver CPC Training Courses

The Driver CPC periodic training courses cover a range of topics, including:

- Safe driving practices
- Fuel-efficient driving
- Customer service
- First aid
- Vehicle maintenance

Drivers must complete 35 hours of Driver CPC periodic training every five years.

The Driver CPC Periodic Training

Drivers must complete 35 hours of Driver CPC periodic training every five years. This training can be completed in a variety of ways, including:

- Attending a Driver CPC training course

- Completing online Driver CPC training
- Undertaking on-the-job training

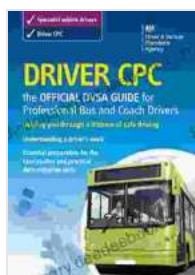

Drivers must keep a record of their Driver CPC periodic training.

The Driver CPC Enforcement

The Driver CPC is enforced by the Driver and Vehicle Standards Agency (DVSA). DVSA can stop and check drivers to ensure that they have a valid Driver CPC.

Drivers who do not have a valid Driver CPC can be fined up to £1,000.
