

Townsend Images of America: Bathroom Readers Institute - Preserving American History One Bathroom at a Time

The Bathroom Readers Institute is a non-profit organization dedicated to preserving and promoting the rich history of America's bathrooms. Founded in 1988 by James Michael Townsend, the Institute has amassed a vast collection of bathroom-related artifacts, including toilets, sinks, bathtubs, showers, and even toilet paper. The Institute's mission is to educate the public about the history of bathrooms and to promote the use of bathrooms as a place for relaxation and reflection.
